Any board member or officer having a duality of interest or possible conflict of interest on any matter shall not vote or use his/her personal influence on the matter.

Section 2. BURDEN OF ESTABLISHING CONTRACT'S VALIDITY. Unless otherwise provided by law, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to, or is threatened to be made a party to, any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a board member, officer, employee, nondirector volunteer, or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a board member, officer, partner, trustee, employee, nondirector volunteer, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, business corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, whether for profit or not for profit.

The indemnification shall be against expenses (including actual and reasonable attorney's fees), judgments, penalties, fines, and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding and shall be made only if he/she acted (or refrained from acting) in good faith and in a manner he/she reasonably believed to be in and not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if he/she had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not of itself create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was lawful.

Section 2. PROCEEDINGS BY OR IN THE RIGHT OF THE CORPORATION. Unless otherwise provided by law, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to, or is threatened to be made a party to, any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a board member, officer, employee, nondirector volunteer or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a board member, officer, partner, trustee, employee , nondirector volunteer, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, business corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise whether for profit or not for profit. The indemnification shall be against expenses (including actual and reasonable attorney's fees) and amounts paid in settlement incurred by the person in connection with the action or suit and shall be made only if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in and not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation. However, no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person has been found liable to the Corporation unless, and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought has determined upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court considers proper.

Section 3. EXPENSES PAYABLE IN ADVANCE. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding described in Section 1 and 2 of this Article may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit, or proceeding, as authorized in the Michigan Nonprofit Corporation Act, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the board member, officer, employee, nondirector volunteer, or agent to repay such amount if it is ultimately determined that the person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation.

Section 4. RIGHT TO CONTINUE. The indemnification provided in this Article shall continue after a person ceases to be a board member, officer, employee, nondirector volunteer, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

Section 5. LIABILITY INSURANCE. of that person's status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have power to indemnify that person against liability pursuant to the Michigan Nonprofit Corporation Act.

Section 6. CONSTITUENT CORPORATION. For purposes of these Bylaws, references to the "corporation" include all constituent corporations absorbed in a consolidation or merger and the resulting or surviving corporation or business corporation, so that a person who is or was a director, officer, employee, nondirector volunteer or agent of the constituent corporation or is or was serving at the request of the constituent corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, nondirector volunteer or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, business corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise whether for profit or not shall stand in the same position with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation or business corporation as that person would if that person had served the resulting or surviving corporation or business corporation in the same capacity.

Since it is difficult to separate confidential and proprietary information from that which is not, the Corporation shall instruct its directors, officers, staff and contractors to regard all information gained as a result of any City Agreement as information which is proprietary to the City and not to be used or disclosed to any other organization or individual without the prior written consent of the City. The Corporation shall take appropriate action with respect to its directors, officers, staff and contractors to insure that the provisions of this Section 4 are enforced. All reports, information and data prepared or assembled by the Corporation pursuant to or in furtherance of a City Agreement shall be confidential and proprietary to the City and, except as required by law, shall not be made available to any individual or organization without the prior written consent of the City. In addition, all non-public information regarding the Corporation and its business and affairs shall be regarded as confidential and each director and officer of the Corporation shall maintain as confidential all such non-public information.
