NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARINGS ON PROPOSED PROCEDURES FOR THE OPERATION OF THE HISTORIC DISTRICTS COMMISSION

To All Whom It May Concern:

Please Take Notice that pursuant to the provisions of the Open Meetings Act of 1976; the City of Detroit Charter of 1974; and City Ordinance No. 161-H, Establishment of Historic Districts

Three (3) Public Hearings will be held at the City of Detroit

Location: Community & Economic Development Department, 6th Floor Conference Room

Street and Address: 150 Michigan Avenue

City and State: Detroit, Michigan

Times of Hearings: 2:30 p.m., 2:45 p.m., and 3:00 p.m.

Day and Date: Thursday, April 27, 1978

These hearings have been set for the purpose of allowing all persons an opportunity to present data, views, and arguments relative to the subject matter on the following hearings:

2:30 p.m. hearing on the Proposed Rules of Procedure for the Historic Districts Commission. These rules will govern the functioning of the Commission in carrying out it's responsibilities as set forth in City Ordinance 161-H, Establishment of Historic Districts. The procedural policies covered in these rules are: Organization, Applications for Building Permits, Dockets and Agenda, Hearings, Decisions, and Amendments.

2:45 p.m. hearing on the Proposed Building Permit Application Review Procedure of the Historic Districts Commission. This is the operating procedure that the Commission will follow in the required review of building permit applications for work in a historic district, as per the definition of "work" set forth in City Ordinance 161-H, Establishment of Historic Districts.

3:00 p.m. hearing on the Proposed Required Information for a Building Permit Review by the Historic Districts Commission. This is a description of the information that the Commission will require from an applicant who is requesting a building permit for work in a historic district. This required information is described in detail in regards to specific types of proposed work.

Copies of these propospd procedures may be reviewed in advance of said hearings at the Community & Economic Development Department, Historic Preservation Office, 6th Floor, 150 Michigan Avenue, Detroit, Michigan 48226 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Single copies of the proposed procedures may be obtained by writing to the foregoing address.

Persons unable to attend the public hearings may send their representative or they may present data, views, and arguments relative to the above proposed procedures by filing the same in writing with the Historic Districts Commission by no later than the close of business of the day preceding the date of the hearings.
