Old Business

Detroit MetroLift vehicles fitting the needs of the rider. There was a good discussion on how to make sure riders' needs are addressed so appropriate vehicles can transport them. Riders' need to express their needs when scheduling so they can be placed on the manifest.

New Business

No new business to report.

PUBLIC COMMENTS:

1. Michelle DeSouza was pleased to hear same day service had returned. She complimented Moe and Bright for excellent service. She complained that the wait time on Detroit MetroLift's phone service is too long. The call back service didn't work; she was put back into the cue.
2. Norwood Johnson wanted to know about the location of future meetings. He requested that his landline be the first phone to call.

3. Larrie Jefferson asked if drivers are supposed to open the van door for riders. She complained that twice the vehicle smelled like marijuana. Vans were dirty inside and out.

All three comments were addressed. Timikka Reeves will address the long waits on the phones and call back responses Ms. DeSouza experienced. She will also change Mr. Johnson's phone number preferences on his instructions. Bright Transportation asked Ms. Jefferson for more information so he could address her concerns.

OTHER COMMENTS

1. Providers state that the new marijuana laws mean people smoke and then board vehicles. The smell permeates.
2. Sabrina asked that Detroit MetroLift customer service hours be extended to 6 p.m. She also asked that service be more consistent. Tamikka Reeves stated she would bring this suggestion to Interim General Manager, Simone Lowe of Transdev.

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting was adjourned at 11:20 a.m. by the chair.
