Detroit Board of Police Commissioners

Bryan
FERGUSON
Police Commissioner

About Police Commissioner Ferguson and the Detroit Board of Police Commissioners

A native Detroiter, Bryan Ferguson grew up on the city's west side and graduated from Central High School. He served in the U.S. Army and received an honorable discharge at the rank of Sergeant. He later joined the United States Postal Service and worked as an automotive technician for 25 years before retiring.

He coaches and mentors youth as a Little League Coach, and led a recent Rosedale Park team to a third-place finish in state competition.

He is passionate about community service. In 2010, he became President of the Schoolcraft Improvement Association and helped grow the organization from 12 to over 370 members during his 11-year tenure. His advocacy with state legislators in a tight budget year secured $50,000 through the State of Michigan for a baseball field and walking track at Dossin Elementary School.

In 2015, three organizations – Detroit Local Initiatives Support Corporation, Michigan Community Resources, and Community Development Advocates of Detroit – selected him as Community Leader of the Year. He also serves on the Rippling Hope Organization Board of Directors. He has been named Volunteer-of-the-Month in Rosedale Park and has two Spirit of Detroit Awards among numerous honors and recognitions for his extensive community service, outreach, and contribution to his neighborhood and the surrounding area.

A 2014 graduate of the Detroit Citizens Police Academy, Police Commissioner Ferguson won election in 2021 and represents District 1.

He is a proud home improvement guru, avid bowler, car and bike builder, and former stand-up comedian. He is married and has one daughter.

The Board of Police Commissioners (BOPC) is comprised of 11 members. Seven are elected by districts like City Council members, and four are at-large mayoral appointees approved by Council. All 11 Board members serve without compensation as a vital civilian board to help ensure police powers and practices comply with Constitutional protections and community policing standards.

The 1974 City Charter first established a civilian oversight board. The BOPC derives its current powers and duties from the 2012 Charter, which strengthened independent, citizen oversight.

Authority: The Board has supervisory control and oversight of the Police Department.

Meeting Schedule: The Board is required to meet at least once each week but may vote to recess during the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year holidays. All meetings are held in accordance with the Open Meetings Act.

Specific Duties:

- Establish policies, rules and regulations in consultation with the Chief of Police, and with the approval of the Mayor
- Review and approve the departmental budget before its submission to the Mayor
- Receive and resolve any complaint concerning the operation of the Police Department except those involving criminality
- Act as final authority in imposing or reviewing discipline of employees of the department
- Make an annual report to the Mayor, Council, and the public of the department's activities during the previous year, including the handling of crime and complaints, and of future plans

Other Board Responsibilities:

Staff:* The Board appoints a Board Secretary and a Chief Investigator, along with other investigators to handle citizen complaints against police/DPD.

Chief of Police: Whenever the Chief of Police position becomes vacant, the Board is responsible for conducting a professional search to identify qualified candidates. The Board submits a list of the final candidates to the Mayor, who makes the appointment subject to City Council approval.

Police Personnel: The Board appoints a civilian as Director of Police Personnel. The Board also approves all promotions made within the DPD.

Office of the Chief Investigator (OCI): OCI investigates citizen complaints against police and other DPD staff and reports findings to the Board.
