CITY COUNCIL

JAMES E. TATE JR.
CITY COUNCIL PRESIDENT PRO-TEMPORE
DISTRICT 1

MEMORANDUM

TO: Garrick Landsberg, Director of Historic Preservation
THRU: Budget, Finance, and Audit Standing Committee
FROM: Council President Pro Tempore James E. Tate Jr.
DATE: Friday, March 17, 2023
RE: Historical Department FY 2023-2024 Budget Questions

Following the Historical Department FY 2023-2024 budget hearing on March 9, 2023, please respond to the following questions.

1. What is the status of locating the original table that was in the Committee of the Whole prior to renovations?
2. What is the status of original furniture that was in the Committee of the Whole prior to renovations?
3. Can the DHS research to find who was the first African American elected to the Detroit City Council. Recently, two names surfaced - William Patrick, Jr. was elected in the early 1950's and Samuel C. Watson was elected to Detroit City Council in the 1880's. It seems no other African American Detroiters were elected between 1880 and 1950.
