

Heilmann Park Update 19601 Crusade St.

February 25, 2025
Public Space Planning Unit
General Services Department

Heilmann Park: Project Concept

- Heilmann Park is the major catalytic park project for the City of Detroit's Strategic Neighborhood Fund (SNF) initiative for the Gratiot/7 Mile (G7) Neighborhood Framework Plan area.
- $900,000 in CDBG funding with an additional $900,000 of additional funding from the National Park Service Outdoor Recreation Legacy Grant.
- Total of $1.8M for the Park
- Community engagement was done throughout 2022 and 2023 to understand the community's park priorities (update 7/2024)

TAKE PART
Opportunity Rising

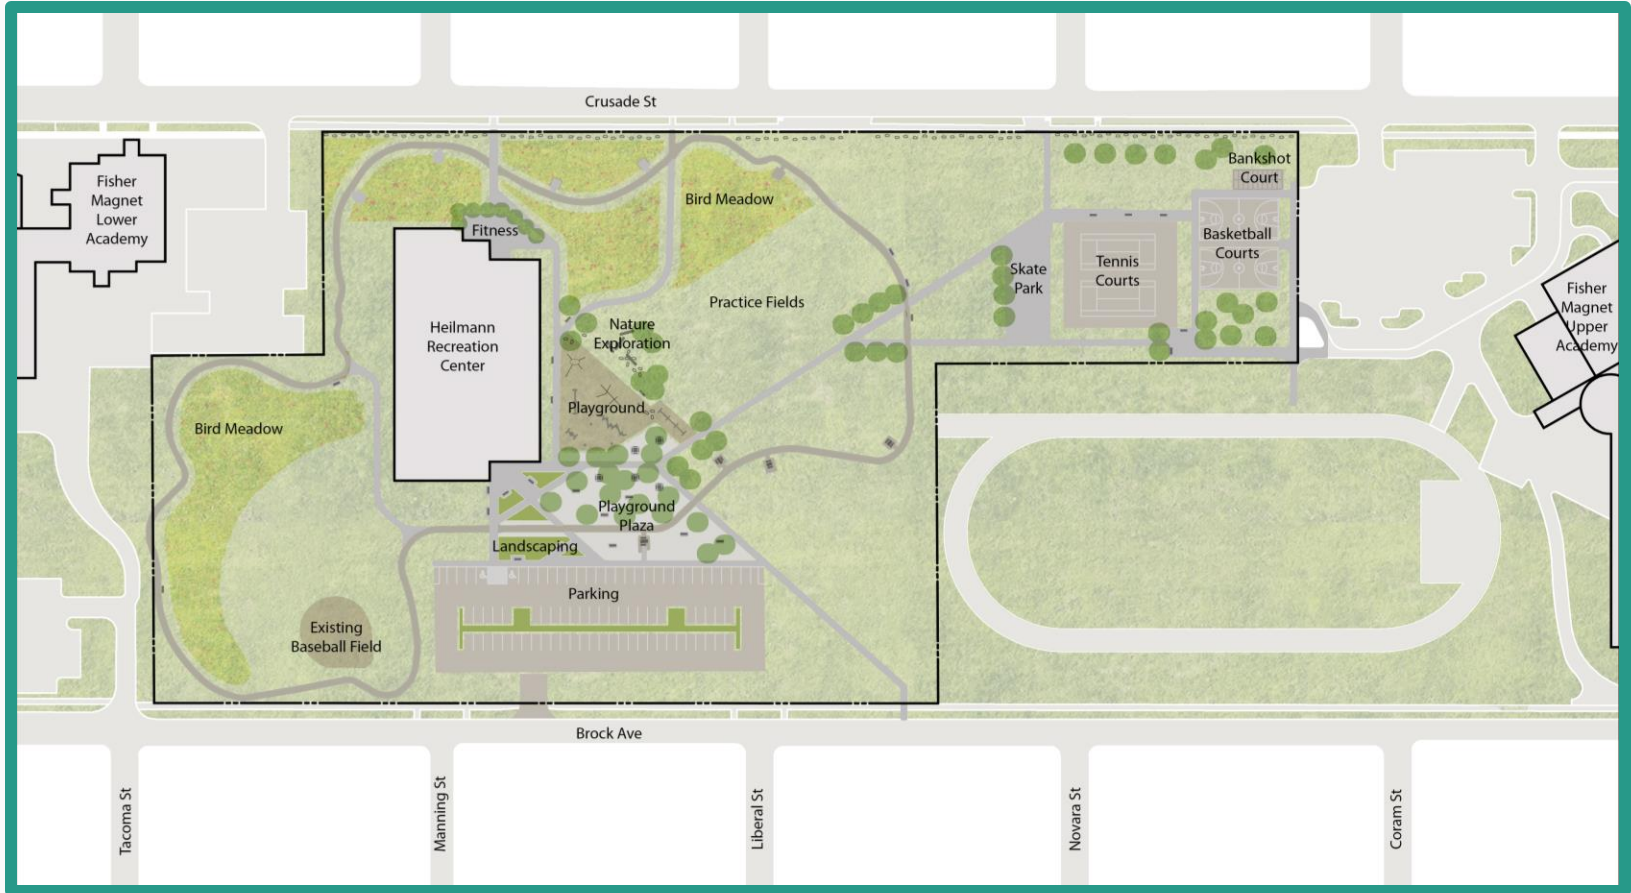

Heilmann Park: Community Engagement

Community Input on Park Priorities:

- Better connections to the Rec Center and park amenities
- Walking path
- Expanded and improved playground
- Outdoor fitness area
- Multi-sport courts
- Improved Parking
- Nature spaces
- Signage
- Entry plaza

Heilmann Park: Current Site Plan

Heilmann Park: Project Timeline

Questions?

For more information check out:

<https://detroitmi.gov/departments/detroit-parks-recreation/parks-and-greenways/heilmann-park>

Theresa McArleton, Chief Parks Planner
theresa.mcarleton@detroitmi.gov

TAKE PART
Opportunity Rising

