• On June 27, 2025, Moody's Ratings (Moody's) upgraded the City of Detroit's issuer and general obligation unlimited tax ratings to Baal from Baa2. The outlook is positive.

The ratings were upgraded to Baal because the City continues to bolster its financial resiliency and maintain solid operating performance, which will enable it to successfully weather the adverse effects of an economic slowdown, should one occur.

Moody's highlighted the use of semi-annual revenue estimating conferences, multi-year forecasting and other strong governance practices.

The City had roughly $2.7 billion of debt outstanding at the end of fiscal 2024.
