Opening Remarks

Dr. Fulton stated that Public Act 182 (PA 182) requires the City to hold two revenue estimating conferences annually (one in February and another in September) to set the City's official economic and revenue forecasts. The principals of the conference must be the Chief Financial Officer for the City of Detroit (Tanya Stoudemire); the State Treasurer or his or her designee (Eric Bussis); and a third person affiliated with a public entity with experience in economic forecasting and revenue projection (George Fulton).

He noted the revenue estimates approved today will begin the process to set the revenues the City uses develop the FY 2027 budget and FY 2027–FY 2030 Four Year–Financial Plan.
