Douglas J. Diggs

In Memoriam

WHEREAS Douglas Jackson Diggs was born in Detroit in 1964 to Anna Diggs Taylor, the state's first African American female federal judge, and Charles C. Diggs Jr., who became the first African American elected to Congress from Michigan. His stepfather, S. Martin Taylor, former head of New Detroit and later, Vice President at DTE Energy was a prominent and caring figure in his life. Diggs credits all his parents for his work ethic and his sense of civic responsibility that became his way of life; and

WHEREAS Douglas Diggs graduated from the University of Detroit High School and Wayne State University. He also received his Masters of Business Administration from Davenport University. Throughout his career he was focused on growing the economy of Detroit. He served as Detroit's Planning and Development Director and was Director of Business and Economic Development for Detroit Renaissance; and

WHEREAS Douglas Diggs was the catalyst for a variety of programs to boost minority business development in the City including the Detroit Community Loan Fund, Michigan Statewide Minority Business Development Center and the Detroit Entrepreneurship Institute. Most recently, he was responsible for creating and implementing the Business and Workforce Participation and Outreach Plan for the Little Caesars Arena and The District Detroit to ensure that Detroit businesses and residents participate in the construction of the project; and

WHEREAS Douglas Diggs was the President and CEO of the Diggs Group Heritage developed and implemented numerous economic development projects in the city. More important to him was the work he did to create workforce opportunities for Detroit residents. He loved Detroit and saw it as his mission to create opportunities for minority businesses to engage and thrive in the city's growth; and

WHEREAS Douglas Diggs was a devoted husband and father. He married the love of his life Dr. Shauna Ryder Diggs. This union was blessed with two daughters; Jaqueline Exyie Diggs and Alexandra Anna Diggs; THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED That the Office of Councilman Scott Benson and Detroit City Council expresses their deepest condolences and share their sympathy in the loss of your loved one, Douglas J. Diggs. Your loss is heaven's gain. May God bless you and comfort you during this time and always.

YVONNE STOKES

Fisher Magnet Lower Academy Principal

WHEREAS Yvonne Stokes was raised in Hamtramck, Michigan and educated in the Hamtramck Public School System until high school. As a high school student she attended Cass Technical High School where she grew as a person and made life-long friends; and

WHEREAS Yvonne Stokes' professional education was obtained at Eastern Michigan University where she received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Elementary Education, with a ZA Endorsement in Early Childhood Education and a Masters of Arts Degree in Educational Leadership. She started her journey in education as a teacher at Howe Elementary School winning mini-grants for a classroom library, hands-on science center and a classroom computer; and

WHEREAS Yvonne Stokes also traveled around the city with the Goods School Rappers, a student group that spread positive messages about staying in school and doing your best. The student rappers received "Spirit of Detroit" awards for their positive influence. Her work in developing the "L-Team" and "Lady L's" boys and girls mentoring programs pointed many students in the right direction and provided college exposure as a seed for future career possibilities; and

WHEREAS Yvonne Stokes first Principal assignment was at Wilkins Elementary/Middle School on the eastside of Detroit in 2010. It was named a low achieving school. However, she rallied her staff to develop a plan to move achievement upward. By August 2013, Wilkins was no longer a low performing school. Her dedication and commitment to helping students achieve educational goals is unparalleled; and

WHEREAS Yvonne Stokes in November of 2013 was named the interim Principal of Fisher Magnet Lower Academy where she has since remained Principal. After thirty years of service she will retire on June 30, 2019; THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED That the Office of Councilman Scott Benson and the Detroit City Council recognizes Yvonne Stokes for her contribution as an educator for the children of the City of Detroit. We appreciate you for molding our next generation. May God continue to bless you in your future endeavors.

Plymouth United Church of Christ
100TH Church Anniversary

WHEREAS With humble beginnings and a deeply rooted commitment to growing the body of Christ, Plymouth United Church of Christ is celebrating 100 years of service in the City of Detroit; and

WHEREAS Plymouth United Church of Christ was founded May 4, 1919 as the first African American Congregational Church in the state of Michigan. It was started by the nine founding members Deacon Edwards M. Hale; Mrs. Carrie L. Thompson; Mrs. Alize Harris; Mr. M.C. Graham; Mr. Farley; Mr. Joseph Shannon; Miss Thelma Benjamin; Mrs. Thomas Benjamin and Mr. Stewart Thompson; and

WHEREAS Plymouth United Church of Christ from 1919 to 1957 served a multitude of people under the previous leadership of its ministers. It continued to grow spiritually and in membership under the leadership of Dr. Rev. Nicholas Hood II. He was a humanitarian and activist. He was the Senior Minister of Plymouth United Church of Christ from 1958 to 1985. In 1963 he began a housing ministry that led to the development of the Medical Center Courts apartments for low to moderate-income families. In 1975 he began construction on the Medical Center Village Apartments, town houses and senior building. His love and willingness raised the community and Plymouth to new heights; and

WHEREAS Plymouth United Church of Christ elected Rev. Nicholas Hood III after his father's resignation. Under his leadership many new members have joined the church, and the involvement of young people have increased. His outlook has been ecumenical and he has borrowed from other denominations practices and introduced a return to racial roots through such practices as annual revivals, voluntary baptism by immersion in the Detroit River; and

WHEREAS Plymouth United Church of Christ has been a source of spiritual support and encouragement for numerous people who have heeded the call to the ministry. The list of sons and daughters of Plymouth who have been ordained is long and impressive. Rev. Nicholas Hood III continues the tradition to serve the community through membership in numerous civic organizations. His leadership has extended the church's missionary outreach to include a personal relationship with several African nations; NOW THEREFORE BE IT

RESOLVED That the Office of Councilman Scott Benson and Detroit City Council congratulates Plymouth United Church of Christ on your 100th Church Anniversary. We thank you for not only making a difference in the lives of the members, but also the community at large. May God continue to bless your endeavors as you work to grow the body of Christ.
