Pastor David L. Lewis

"11th Pastoral Anniversary"

WHEREAS: Pastor David L. Lewis The congregation of St. Matthew Missionary Baptist Church elected Reverend David L. Lewis, as our pastor on August 17, 2008, after the untimely death of Reverend V. Thornton in 2007. Pastor Lewis served as Minister of Music, taught Sunday School and preached the early morning service while serving under Reverend Vincent R. Thornton. Pastor Lewis was installed October 12, 2008; AND

WHEREAS: Pastor David L. Lewis extended his musical expertise as Vocal Musical Accompanist at Southeastern High School of Technology working with Mrs. Patrice Dubois, Vocal Music Instructor; AND

WHEREAS: Pastor David L. Lewis' passion for music began at an early age. He would rise early in the morning to practice and would devote 5 to 6 hours practicing each day. He majored in Music Theory at Oakland University. His fingers moved with such speed and accuracy his fellow students dubbed him "Lightening." His musical talents and abilities afforded him to play with both secular and gospel artists; AND

WHEREAS: After the death of his mother, Pastor Lewis fought for a deeper relationship with God, and in God's awesome power, He saw in His vessel a spirit of willingness, dedication, humility, and wisdom. God ordered Pastor Lewis' steps, and placed upon him an anointing of pastoring; where now the prophecy spoken over him as a child, is now being fulfilled; AND

WHEREAS: Pastor David L. Lewis is married to First Lady Vickie Lewis and they are the proud parents of David L. Lewis, Jr., MD and Grandparents of Dave' Elise Lewis. Mrs. Vickie Lewis is owner, President / CEO of VMX International Environmental Engineering Firm; AND
