Mr. Curtis Hugo Burl Kilpatrick

'In Recognition of Your Centennial 100TH Birthday'

- Whereas, October 20, 2019, marks the 100th Birthday of Mr. Curtis Hugo Burl Kilpatrick, a very significant milestone, reserved for very few. The Detroit City Council would like to publicly acknowledge this important event in his life; and
- Whereas, Curtis Kilpatrick was born on October 20, 1919, in Clarksdale, Arkansas, to the union of Virginia Dubose Kilpatrick and Warren Rudolph Kilpatrick. His mother was six months pregnant with his brother, Warren Rudolph Kilpatrick Jr., when his father made his heavenly transition. Shortly thereafter, Curtis and his mother moved back to Jackson, Alabama, where he began his education; and
- Whereas, After graduating from high school and working a few odd jobs, Curtis was drafted into the United States Army in 1943. He received an honorable discharge in 1945. As a result of the G.I. Bill that was passed by Congress and signed into law by President Franklin Roosevelt in 1944, Curtis enrolled at the Tuskegee Institute, where he studied tailoring. After completing his course of study, Curtis accepted a position in Memphis, Tennessee to teach tailoring. He taught there for three years before returning to Jackson. Curtis started his own dry cleaning business, City Cleaners and Tailors, which operated for over 38 years; and
- Whereas, Elder Kilpatrick gave his life to Christ at an early age and was baptized at Mt. Olive #2 Baptist Church. He grew spiritually and had many opportunities to experience the goodness of God. He served as a Sunday School teacher, trustee, and deacon. While faithfully serving the body of Christ, he received the call to ministry at Mt. Olive under the leadership of Reverend Williams. Elder Kilpatrick was later ordained to preach the gospel at Good Hope Missionary Baptist Church in Salitpa, Alabama. In the 70s, he served as Pastor of Old Mt. Sinai Baptist Church until God laid it on his heart to build The House of Prayer. Elder Kilpatrick is affectionately referred to as the "Sin Buster"; and
- Whereas, Elder Kilpatrick has been very fortunate to have had two wonderful women in his life. He married his first wife, Ola Belle Burroughs Kilpatrick in 1945. They were together for 22 years before she went on to be with the Lord. To this union one son was born. Elder Kilpatrick later married his second wife, Ethel Louise Alston Kilpatrick, who loved him and supported him in his ministry and in life. They were married for over 39 years until the Lord called her home at the tender age of 91. Elder Kilpatrick is the father of Curtis Jr., who is married to Emily JoAnna. He has two grandsons, Curtis III and Eric Jarreau; two granddaughters, Carmen (Keith) Williams and Cindita (Frazier) Cunningham; four great-grandsons, Christopher, Timothy, Daeven, and Daeon; and two great-granddaughters, Kennedy and Victoria. Elder Kilpatrick has witnessed many historical events during the century of his life and imparted many caveats of wisdom. At age 100, Elder Kilpatrick keeps moving "by the power of God." As family and friends are gathered here today to commemorate and celebrate his 100th Birthday, it is abundantly fitting and proper that Elder Curtis Hugo Burl Kilpatrick be appropriately recognized during this very special and memorable time of his life. NOW, THEREFORE BE IT
- Resolved, That the Detroit City Council and Council President Brenda Jones congratulate Elder Curtis Hugo Burl Kilpatrick on the occasion of his 100th Birthday. We wish him continued peace, good health and happiness.
