Article XI, Special Purpose Zoning District Amendments

Division 3, Specific Use Standards, Subdivision A, Residential Uses, Section 50-12-165, Shelters for victims of domestic violence is being revised to reflect the following changes:

- 1) Striking the term, "victims," and replacing it with "survivors" in subsection (a), also specifying that Buildings Safety Engineering and Environmental Department (BSEED) has the authority to determine the maximum capacity for such uses in the R2, R3, R4, R5, R6, B1, B2, B4, B5, and SD1 zoning classifications.
- 2) Striking the current R3 and R4 limitation in subsection (b) that shelters for survivors of domestic violence only be permitted by-right where the shelter is adjacent to, or across an alley or street from, land zoned in a business or industrial district classification, and that the zoning lot of the shelter abut a major thoroughfare as designated in the Master Plan.

“In the R2 District, such uses may be established only in former religious residential structures, nonconforming multi-family residential structures, or a former school building under the adaptive reuse provisions of this Chapter.”
