

DETROIT POLICE DEPARTMENT

Detroit Police Chaplain Corps

We are always praying for the City of Detroit

Character

Commitment

Chemistry

The leadership of the Detroit Police Department and the Detroit Police Chaplain Corps is to acquire persons who are ordained, available, committed, and have the following characteristics for this ministry.

Commitment

Being dedicated, faithful, loyal to a cause, organization, making themselves available to the Detroit Police Department and Detroit Police Chaplain Corps.

Character

Moral: ethical quality, honorable man or women who believes in doing the right thing because it is right.

Chemistry

Mutual respect for each other in the spirit of teamwork, while working towards a nucleus of being on once accord for the betterment of producing excellence as a whole.

Mission Statement

Promoting a more positive relationship between members of the Detroit Police Department and the community, aiding, and fostering the personal growth of law enforcement officers and rendering spiritual guidance where needed.

History of the Chaplains

- Began in 1949, and the first 3 Chaplains were appointed by the police commissioner.
- Police Chaplains were made official by the city ordinance by January 1975, and to date we have 102 sworn Police Chaplains.
- Police Chaplains are assigned to all 12 precincts for service.
- To date there has been only 2 Police Chaplains killed/died in the line of duty:
 - 1976 Police Chaplain William Paris
 - 2020 Commander Chaplain Valerie Parks during Covid-19

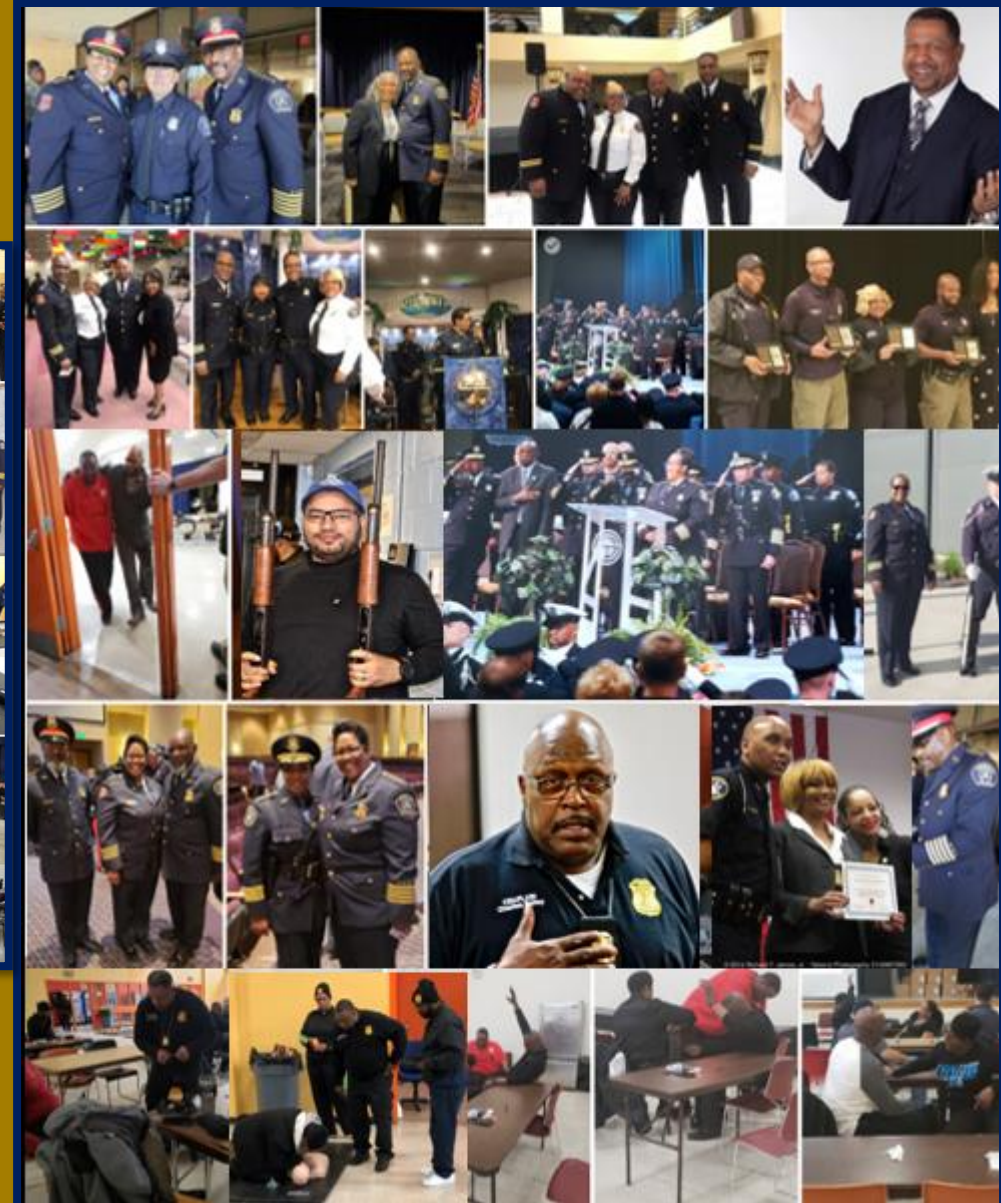

Vision Statement

“I believe that we have the perfect machine in place to run our Chaplain Corps. My role as Chief Chaplain is to enhance the vision that we have, and to tweak what component that is not working effectively, so that we operate in the spirit of excellence. We must raise the bar high to accomplish these goals. We aim to make a mark in the lives of others that will never be erased.”
