The Honorable Judge Sean B. Perkins, 36th District Court, State of Michigan administered the Oath of Office to Chairperson Darryl Woods, and Vice Chairperson Tamara Liberty Smith. Chairperson Darryl Woods thanked the past Chair QuanTez Pressley for his great leadership, under his leadership, we have been able to get fully staffed at OCI that was vitally important to be able to deal with the backlog that this community and the citizens of Detroit are very concerned about. We took an oath to serve the citizens of the city of Detroit. We did not take an oath to serve any leader. We did not take an oath to do anything for personal gain, and I assure you that I am not here because I have aspirations to go anywhere else. I am here because I am willing to sacrifice my time, my efforts, my resources and my talent to be able to do everything that we possibly can, to be able to get rid of the backlog. To be able to bring dignity and respect and integrity to this office. And so, You have my promise and my dedication, that I will do everything possible to work with all of my fellow commissioners in a civil, respectful and honorable way to be able to do everything we can to reduce the backlog. That is the number one priority for us as a Commission. You also have my promise that I would never, ever turn my back on the people of the city of Detroit. I would do everything within my spirit and in my mind, with all the fiber of my being to be able to serve in a loving and compassionate way. I know that many of my fellow commissioners share that spirit. We ask you to be a little patient with us. Please know that we will report back to this community, and we will continue to stay open and transparent. I think that you would be very happy with some of the initiatives that we have in mind to be able to show the citizens of the city of Detroit that we mean business. I want to thank all of the commissioners, the ones who voted for me, the ones who did not vote for me and for all the ones who didn't vote. And I will say this, it's time for us to show up for the citizens of the city of Detroit. We need to be present at every meeting. The citizens of the city of Detroit deserve for us to have a quorum at every meeting they deserve for us to work hard and work very diligently, to be able to serve this community.

My pastor is here, the Honorable Bishop Charles Haywood, Ellis III, he's a very honorable leader in this community, and First Lady Ellis. Also the Honorable Pastor Spencer T. Ellis, who is here, a dear friend of mine. This is the 50th Anniversary in which we celebrate the Board of Police Commission. One of those commissioners inspired me for decades, and it is the reason why I am sitting in this seat. It is their father, who touched my heart and touched my mind, and ministered to me. When I was in a weak place, in a downtrodden place, and was able to advocate and pray for me, and love on me and his sons had did the same thing since their father been gone since 1996. It is his inspiration who sat in this seat as a Board of Police Commissioner that I am inspired by. I am inspired by the Honorable Coleman Alexander Young, who wrote the book Hard Stuff. Read his book, his autobiography from cover to cover. I read it three times, and you will get some real inspiration. My good friend the Honorable Deputy Mayor Todd Bettison who serves this community, I thank him for being here. And I have so many friends and brothers and sisters that's in this room today. The Director of the Conviction Integrity Unit, the one who fight against injustices in reverse wrongful convictions the Honorable Valerie Newman. There are so many here, my grandson is here. My daughter is right there, my father, my brothers, are in the room and my cousins, so you all can't mess with me today. So all of my family and friends, would you please stand as I recognize you because I cannot call everyone by name. Finally, I will say to my friend, Judge Perkins you are a dear friend, a person who means business in the courtroom. You do it with integrity and love and compassion, and so I thank you for being here to swear in my fellow colleague, as well as myself, so much love and respect to you, and God bless you.
