

Resolution Honoring
Police Officer Yassine Alatooli

WHEREAS In May of 2021, while working at a family-owned business within the 9th Precinct, Yassine Alatooli had a life-changing encounter with Neighborhood Police Officer Lester Johnson. That positive interaction sparked a friendship and ignited a new purpose. Through NPO Johnson’s mentorship, Alatooli learned about the impactful role of a Neighborhood Police Officer—and from that moment forward, he knew exactly what he wanted to become; and

WHEREAS On August 15, 2022, Yassine Alatooli officially began his journey as a Police Officer with the Detroit Police Department. Upon graduating from the academy, he was assigned to the 7th Precinct, where he quickly began to distinguish himself. In October 2024, Officer Alatooli joined the Neighborhood Police Unit, fulfilling the very aspiration that had inspired him just a few years earlier; and

WHEREAS Though still early in his career, Officer Alatooli has already made a remarkable impact. Assigned to the prestigious 07-11 area, which includes Indian Village, the Joseph Berry Subdivision, and East Village, he has built strong, lasting relationships with block clubs, community leaders, and residents. His approach is proactive and personal—tackling quality-of-life issues head-on and ensuring that every resident feels heard, seen, and supported. Officer Alatooli has earned the nickname “SeeClickFix Ambassador” for his dedication to closing over 300 SeeClickFix complaints, directly addressing community concerns and improving neighborhood conditions. His commitment to service is matched by his academic excellence—holding a Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from Cleary University, where he maintained a 4.0 GPA with a focus on management and leadership; and

WHEREAS Despite not yet being formally appointed as a Neighborhood Police Officer, Officer Alatooli carries himself with the pride, gratitude, and professionalism of someone who fully embraces the mission. He is known for his passion, empathy, integrity, and willingness to go above and beyond without complaint. Officer Yassine Alatooli is not just an asset to the 7th Precinct—he is the embodiment of what it means to serve with heart, humility, and purpose.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED

That the Detroit Board of Police Commissioners, speaking on behalf of the citizens of the great City of Detroit, recognizes and honors the lifelong contributions and commitment to excellence in public service of Police Officer Yassine Alatooli. His display of unwavering community spirit has improved the quality of life for the citizens of Detroit.

We thank and congratulate you.
