

Resolution Honoring Police Commissioner Ricardo Moore

Whereas, Police Commissioner Ricardo Moore was part of the historic first class of Police Commissioners elected in 2013, and he became Vice Chair of the new 11-member Board of Police Commissioners. As a Detroit Police Lieutenant, Commissioner Moore brought a longstanding commitment to professional service to the community and a dedication to police accountability in serving as a Board leader and in representing District 7 during his original term; and

Whereas, Commissioner Moore returned to the Board in 2022 after completing a four-year appointment on the State of Michigan Parole Board. Active throughout the district and its precincts, Commissioner Moore is known for extensive outreach to residents and for championing community concerns about police encounters, 911 response times, and neighborhood safety; and

Whereas, Through his monthly Transparency in Policing news alerts, Commissioner Moore has highlighted key topics about civilian oversight, police procedures, and crime prevention. His dedicated service, both in law enforcement and as a Police Commissioner, is rooted in empathy with crime victims because violence touched his life often growing up. He and his mother discovered his grandfather as a victim of homicide. He also experienced shootings at a homecoming football game, weapon sweeps, and a murder outside the school cafeteria. His experiences became cornerstones to why he cares about keeping people safe, and fuels his tenacity in holding DPD members – from officers to commanders – accountable; and

Whereas, Commissioner Moore, a proud father and grandfather, is a member of Central CME Church and Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity. As he completes his second term representing District 7 residents, he will continue to champion the City and residents through his extensive community involvement and organizations.

Therefore, be it

Resolved, The Board of Police Commissioners awards this resolution in recognition of the dedicated and diligent service by Police Commissioner Ricardo Moore, whose dedication and commitment to civilian oversight, the City of Detroit, and residents merit our highest regards.

We salute you Commissioner Moore for a job well done and wish you continued success in the future.
