To The Detroit Historic District Commission

We do not support the application to build a new 14 unit building here in our Virginia Park New Center community. I thought this application was already denied by the Detroit Historic District Commissioners by a vote held in February 2025. My understanding is that this developer has resubmitted almost the exact same project application for HDC reconsideration at the October 8 meeting, indicating community support. My wife and I still do not support in any way this project application in our community.

Sincerely,

Drs. Herbert and Lynn C. Smitherman, Jr.,
