What goes with a backyard of a thousand pines? The very thing that does right by snowcaps and sand, too: durable composite boards that allow you to take in nature's every shade of awe.

tastemaker
EVETTE RIOS

Enjoying the languid pace of home is not something that lifestyle expert, writer, designer and TV personality Evette Rios takes lightly. So when it came to expanding the Pocono Mountains retreat that she shares with her husband, Stephen, and her two sons, Yago and Rex, the Jane-of-all-trades knew she wanted an outdoor room that not only reflected her colorful personality, but required little of her time when it came to maintenance. Here the style guru shares the ins and outs of her recent Trex deck build.

How did you come to choose Trex for your project?

I try to use sustainable and environmentally friendly products for my home whenever possible. Trex decking was the ideal solution because it is extremely durable and almost completely made of recycled content.

Which Trex decking product did you use?

I chose Trex Transcend in Island Mist. I love it because it has a silvery aged look that works well with the old barn wood around our property. We also used Trex Signature® railing with glass panels, which allowed us to have an uninterrupted view of the trees and visiting birds.

Did anything about Trex surprise you?

I was unsure if it would look like real wood, but Transcend decking looks entirely realistic with its streaks and color variations.

How are you using your outdoor space?

We eat our meals out there, we play out there, and we cook out there, too. Plus, there's a hot tub and a fireplace, so we are spending a lot of time on our Trex deck.
