Hello Audra,

Here are additional pictures

The patio door was installed as an emergency remedy about 5 years. It was simply boarded there at the time.

The railings have been bought at Home Depot & Lowes. I don't have the manufacturer's name.

The windows to be changed are in the back. All the ones on the 2nd floor, plus the barricaded one on the 1st floor. On side door, a window in the basement and a small window by the side entrance door need to be changed

Regard
